KORDES ROSEN

Die schönsten Rosen der Welt

CON AMORE®
(S.39)

THE LATEST CUT

This Kordes catalogue for the latest cut rose varieties only shows a small part of the whole range of Kordes cutroses.

For the full assortment of Kordes' cutrose varieties, please visit our website www.Kordes-Cutroses.com

Technical data quoted represents average results and should therefore be used only as a guideline. Differences in growing convictions such as climate, altitude and cultivation methods will cause local results to vary.

You are welcome to contact our cutrose team in Germany, the Netherlands and in Kenya or any of our local agents for more detailed information of the rose varieties. They will support you with all their knowledge to provide you with specific technical information for cultivation under the local conditions of your production area.

Throughout the year you are always welcome to see our newest and latest varieties in real life by appointment at our test facilities worldwide. There are hidden rose treasures waiting to be explored the whole year round.
